20% presentation. All students are required to present the explanation based on the concepts of linguistics distributed the previous week. You can find the information from the three textbooks recommended and internet.

25% Midterm. Tests are in-class, short answer/true or false/multiple choice. There will be a detailed review session before the test so you'll know exactly what is coming. The dates for both the midterm and the final are fixed at the beginning of the semester. Please schedule your other obligations around these dates, because THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP TESTS. Make up exams will not be given except in the case of extraordinary circumstances.

25% Final. See "Midterm."

3. Homework assignments description

- a. There will be ten assignments. However, eight assignments will contribute to your grade. Therefore, you are expected to do all the assignments. The three lowest score will be dropped. Through these assignments you will gain the understanding of introduction to linguistics. You are required to do the linguistic analysis of certain data.
- b. Homework is to be turned in on the due date at the beginning of lecture (=no later than the first 20 minutes of class). YOU MUST TURN IN YOUR HOMEWORK. Early submissions are welcome; LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
