Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Based on our records, we understand you recently accepted a transfer offer of your article to Heliyon.

We have not seen your article come into Heliyon's submissions system yet and wanted to check in with you so we can trouble-shoot if we have had a systems problem. We would like to make this process as easy as possible for you.

To complete the transfer of your submission please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/HELIYON/> and navigate to the "Submissions Sent Back to Author" folder. There you can edit your submission by clicking "Edit submission" under the "Action Link" menu.

If you are actively working on revising your manuscript prior to finalizing the transfer into Heliyon, that is great, and please do feel free to contact us if there is anything we can do to help when you are ready to finalize your submission. If you have any other concerns about submitting to Heliyon or the journal transfer or submission processes, please don't hesitate to ask us."

We are very much look forward to helping you, both in transferring your article and in giving you and your article a fair review process at Heliyon.

Kind regards,

Heliyon.

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon. Before we begin the review process for your manuscript, we perform an initial check against formal criteria. Though we found your manuscript interesting, in its present form it is not suitable to be sent out for review. We would consider the manuscript for peer-review if you make changes/ corrections as detailed in the comments below and re-submit the revised version. We ask that you respond to each comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism. This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here: □ Guide for Authors: Heliyon. Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary.

To submit your updated manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu. Your revision due date is Apr 03, 2023.

If you need additional time to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please let us know so we can discuss a plan for moving your paper forward.

I look forward to receiving your updated manuscript.

Research Elements (optional)

This journal encourages you to share research objects - including your raw data, methods, protocols, software, hardware and more – which support your original research article in a Research Elements journal. Research Elements are open access, multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed journals which make the objects associated with your research more discoverable, trustworthy and promote replicability and reproducibility. As open access journals, there may be an Article Publishing Charge if your paper is accepted for publication. Comments:

The methodology states that survey questionnaires and interviews were used to collect data, but there is currently no statement or indication of ethics approval or informed consent in the article or on the application form. Please provide evidence of the following, and add this information to the Methods section of your paper, before we send it for peer review:

- 1) Ethics approval from an institutional review board or ethics committee, including the name of the organization who granted approval for the research;
- 2) A statement of informed consent regarding participants who completed surveys or interviews.

Dear Heliyon,

Answering your previous message, there are some important points that I and other authors underline. We attach the comment and respond to your suggestion/review.

1. Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary.

As your previous suggestion, the authors have checked and revised the reference. A manuscript is already used the Numbered reference style.

2. Ethics approval from an institutional review board or ethics committee, including the name of the organization that granted approval for the research;

Responding to your statement, the authors attach the file of ethics approval below. In addition, the authors have added information regarding this approval in the manuscript, especially in the method section.

3. A statement of informed consent regarding participants who completed surveys or interviews.

The authors agreed with your advice or comment opinion. To add further information, the authors attached the file which illustrates the informed consent statement. Kindly check the proof of informed consent and instrument sheet in our research. This research is original work and has not been published yet elsewhere. We also provide the ethical statement in the manuscript.

4. Additional information about detail questionnaire

Responding to previous comment, the authors do agree that the detail information about the instrument itself or questioner must be explained clearly and detail. In addition, we also attach the information of main components in instrument or questionnaire in the manuscript. Hopefully, it has performed good content or result.

In addition, authors want to attach the declaration of interest's statement below. (We also attach the file in email)

Declaration of interest's statement

The authors declare no conflict of interest.

Thanks in advance for your feedback, comment, and suggestion. It brings a meaningful impact on the authors' manuscript.

Title: Development of Authentic Assessment Instruments Basic Forehand and Backhand Groundstroke Techniques: Action-Based Method

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon. We have completed the review of your manuscript and a summary is appended below. The reviewers recommend major revisions are required before publication can be considered. If you are able to address all reviewer comments in full, I invite you to resubmit your manuscript. We ask that you respond to each reviewer comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism.

This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/guide-for-authors#Revisions>.

Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary.

To allow the editors and reviewers to easily assess your revised manuscript, we also ask that you upload a version of your manuscript highlighting any revisions made. You may wish to use Microsoft Word's Track Changes tool or, for LaTeX files, the latexdiff Perl script (<https://ctan.org/pkg/latexdiff>). To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder.

Please note that our ethics requirements are now updated. Please choose all applicable statements in our ethics declarations list (available here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/ethics>) and include them as a complete ethics statement in the declarations section at the end of your manuscript.

Your revision due date is Aug 04, 2023. We understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may well be causing disruption for you and your colleagues. If that is the case for you and it has an impact on your ability to make revisions to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please reach out to us.

If you need additional time to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please let us know so we can discuss a plan for moving your paper forward.

I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Editor comments:

Attached, please find a pdf with editor suggestions for revision. Overall, the manuscript was interesting and readable, but needs some reorganization of concepts and supplementation of details. The language will also need to undergo proofreading to remove some minor errors and increase clarity.

Reviewer reports follow below in the email body text, and one is also attached as a pdf. Please note some comments have been edited for language. If you have any difficulty accessing or viewing the attachments, please let me know.

Reviewer comments:

Please note that manuscripts with inadequate language quality will not be accepted in the journal. If editors and / or reviewers indicate that language revisions are required for your manuscript, we strongly encourage using a professional language editing service. Elsevier's Language Editing services provides professional and prompt editing of scientific language for research submissions (<https://webshop.elsevier.com/language-editing-services/language-editing/>). All manuscripts edited with Elsevier's Language Editing services are accompanied by a certificate that may be submitted to the journal as proof for language editing. Poor language may lead to rejection of your manuscript even at the revision stage.

Reviewer's Responses to Questions

Note: In order to effectively convey your recommendations for improvement to the author(s), and help editors make well-informed and efficient decisions, we ask you to answer the following specific questions about the manuscript and provide additional suggestions where appropriate.

1. Are the objectives and the rationale of the study clearly stated?

Please provide suggestions to the author(s) on how to improve the clarity of the objectives and rationale of the study. Please number each suggestion so that author(s) can more easily respond.

Reviewer #1: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved Yes, there is no need for improvement
Provide further comments here: 1. In the intro section, I am aware that you are attempting to explain the study's rationale. But lines 40-44, please provide with the support of the literature.

2. The Actions Method is a method of teaching tennis that emphasizes a framework for applying "what to do/what to do by tennis players", and is always closely related to "how to do/how to do" for a tennis player. Remove minor grammar errors.

Reviewer #2: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved Yes, there is no need for improvement
Provide further comments here: The purpose of the study is not clear enough, what is the rationale?

2. If applicable, is the application/theory/method/study reported in sufficient detail to allow for its replicability and/or reproducibility?

Please provide suggestions to the author(s) on how to improve the replicability/reproducibility of their study. Please number each suggestion so that the author(s) can more easily respond.

Reviewer #1: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved Yes, there is no need for improvement
Provide further comments here: 1. In the Research method section, I am aware that you are attempting to explain the ethical approval. But there are too many sentences, maybe it can be simple.

2. In the Research method section, you should provide an explanation of the four factors and their indicators included in the instrument, and list the cited literature. so, improve the reliability and validity of the instrument.

Reviewer #2: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved Yes, there is no need for improvement

Reviewer #3: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved Yes, there is no need for improvement

Provide further comments here:

There is no clear description of how the research was conducted

3. If applicable, are statistical analyses, controls, sampling mechanism, and statistical reporting (e.g., P-values, CIs, effect sizes) appropriate and well described?

Please clearly indicate if the manuscript requires additional peer review by a statistician. Kindly provide suggestions to the author(s) on how to improve the statistical analyses, controls, sampling mechanism, or statistical reporting. Please number each suggestion so that the author(s) can more easily respond.

Please provide suggestions to the author(s) on how to better emphasize the strengths of their study. Please number each suggestion so that the author(s) can more easily respond.

Reviewer #1: Mark as appropriate with an X:

Not Applicable No and here is how they should be improved [X] Yes, there is no need for improvement

Provide further comments here: 1. In the discussion section, I suggest citing more literature to discuss the factors that affect the success of making forehand and backing and groundstroke in playing tennis, and further support the author's opinion .

2. This review of the study needs improvement with the latest support of the literature. Furthermore, I have found that the literature review used is very old. Thus, it is necessary to update the literature part with the fresh studies. At the end of the introduction part, please indicate a theoretical contribution of the paper and add the structure of the paper by sections. I recommend the author to find the literature gap and indicate how the paper fills that gap. Cite these studies to strengthen the quality of this study.

The article does not include a literature review, as well as, a description of the conducted research, and the characteristics of the participants

9. Could the manuscript benefit from language editing?

Reviewer #1: Yes

Reviewer #2: Yes

Reviewer #3: Yes

Reviewer #1: Thanks for inviting me to review this manuscript. This topic is quite interesting and it is overall well organised. The authors have investigated a good research area. I will accept this article after some changes. Modify according to these suggestions.

1. In the intro section, I am aware that you are attempting to explain the study's rationale. But lines 40-44, please provide with the support of the literature.
2. The Actions Method is a method of teaching tennis that emphasizes a framework for applying "what to do/what to do by tennis players", and is always closely related to "how to do/how to do" for a tennis player. Remove minor grammar errors.
3. In the research method section, I am aware that you are attempting to explain the ethical approval. But there are too many sentences, maybe it can be simple.
4. In the research method section, you should provide the explanation of four factors (all indicators) in the instrument, and list the cited literature. so, improve the reliability and validity of the instrument.
5. In the discussion section, I suggest citing more literature to discuss the factors that affect the success of making forehand and backhand and groundstroke in playing tennis, and further support the author's opinion.
6. This review of the study needs improvement with the latest support of the literature. Furthermore, I have found that the literature review used is very old. Thus, it is necessary to update the literature part with the fresh studies. At the end of the introduction part, please indicate a theoretical contribution of the paper and add the structure of the paper by sections. I recommend the author to find the literature gap and indicate how the paper fills that gap. Cite these studies to strengthen the quality of this study.

Reviewer #2: The text is more about the questionnaire comments of experts, does it involve students?

1. Are assessment tools suitable for any age and skill level?
2. Evaluate the rationality/consistency of the student's hitting movements and how you evaluate the power link?
3. The article mentions that there is no tool to assess the level of athletes, etc., as far as I understand, NTRP evaluates the level of students, please indicate how your assessment tool differs from it?

Reviewer #3: The reviewed paper concerns the assessment of two basic tennis strokes: forehand and backhand performed by students. The reviewed paper consists of an introduction, description of research methodology, results, discussion and conclusions. In my opinion, the work contains a number of shortcomings that negatively affect the reception of the article:

1. There was no literature review that allow for the formulation of any research hypotheses. 13 literature items are definitely not enough when there is a lot of work on tennis (see. THETIS dataset, forehand, backhand classification, etc.).
2. The description related to the elements of obtaining the consent of the ethics committee, as well as the names of their members, do not add anything to the article, it is enough to inform that the authors have such consent and who and when issued it.
4. Not enough description of carried out research. It is not known how large the group of participants was, what was their age, tennis experience, level of knowledge, etc.
5. Lack of justification for the purpose of the questions appearing in the assessment.
6. Lack of sufficient statistics.
7. Lack of comparison of the authors' method with other available methods (comparison with the-state-of-the-art).
8. Unexplained abbreviations used in the article.

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon. We have now received all of the editor and reviewer comments on your recent submission to Heliyon. The reviewers have advised that your manuscript requires revisions prior to being considered for publication. We ask that you respond to each reviewer comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism. This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/guide-for-authors#RevisionsTo> allow the editors and reviewers to easily assess your revised manuscript, we also ask that you upload a version of your manuscript highlighting any revisions made. You may wish to use Microsoft Word's Track Changes tool or, for LaTeX files, the latexdiff Perl script (<https://ctan.org/pkg/latexdiff>).

We also request you to ensure the following about data availability.

While first submitting your manuscript, you were asked two questions regarding data availability. The questions and your responses to them are as follows,

Please add these responses to the 'Data availability statement' section of your manuscript. If your manuscript doesn't contain a 'Data availability statement' section, please add one right before the 'References' section and then include these responses therein.

Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary.

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu.

Please note that our ethics requirements are now updated. Please choose all applicable statements in our ethics declarations list (available here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/ethics>) and include them as a complete ethics statement in the declarations section at the end of your manuscript.

Your revision due date is Dec 01, 2023. We understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may well be causing disruption for you and your colleagues. If that is the case for you and it has an impact on your ability to make revisions to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please reach out to us.

If you need additional time to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please let us know so we can discuss a plan for moving your paper forward.

I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Research Elements (optional)

This journal encourages you to share research objects - including your raw data, methods, protocols, software, hardware and more – which support your original research article in a Research Elements journal. Research Elements are open access, multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed journals which make the objects associated with your research more discoverable, trustworthy and promote replicability and reproducibility. As open access journals, there may be an Article Publishing Charge if your paper is accepted for publication. Find out more about the Research Elements journals at https://www.elsevier.com/authors/tools-and-resources/research-elements-journals?dgcid=ec_em_research_elements_email.

Editor comments:

The manuscript is greatly improved, and almost ready to accept for final publication checks. Unfortunately, some grammar edits were missed in the last round of revision. Please see the attached pdf, and check thoroughly to ensure that all grammar edits are incorporated this time. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out.

Journal: Heliyon

Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon. We have now received all of the editor and reviewer comments on your recent submission to Heliyon. The reviewers have advised that your manuscript requires revisions prior to being considered for publication. We ask that you respond to each reviewer comment by either outlining how the criticism was addressed in the revised manuscript or by providing a rebuttal to the criticism. This should be carried out in a point-by-point fashion as illustrated here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/guide-for-authors#RevisionsTo> allow the editors and reviewers to easily assess your revised manuscript, we also ask that you upload a version of your manuscript highlighting any revisions made. You may wish to use Microsoft Word's Track Changes tool or, for LaTeX files, the latexdiff Perl script (<https://ctan.org/pkg/latexdiff>).

We also request you to ensure the following about data availability.

While first submitting your manuscript, you were asked two questions regarding data availability. The questions and your responses to them are as follows,

Additional Information

1. Ngatman Ngatman

as follow-up to "Data Availability

Sharing research data helps other researchers evaluate your findings, build on your work and to increase trust in your article. We encourage all our authors to make as much of their data publicly available as reasonably possible. Please note that your response to the following questions regarding the public data availability and the reasons for potentially not making data available will be available alongside your article upon publication.

Data will be made available on request

Has data associated with your study been deposited into a publicly available repository?

Please add these responses to the 'Data availability statement' section of your manuscript. If your manuscript doesn't contain a 'Data availability statement' section, please add one right before the 'References' section and then include these responses therein.

Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary.

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu.

Please note that our ethics requirements are now updated. Please choose all applicable statements in our ethics declarations list (available here: <https://www.cell.com/heliyon/ethics>) and include them as a complete ethics statement in the declarations section at the end of your manuscript.

Your revision due date is Dec 01, 2023. We understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may well be causing disruption for you and your colleagues. If that is the case for you and it has an impact on your ability to make revisions to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please reach out to us.

If you need additional time to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please let us know so we can discuss a plan for moving your paper forward.

I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Research Elements (optional)

This journal encourages you to share research objects - including your raw data, methods, protocols, software, hardware and more – which support your original research article in a Research Elements journal. Research Elements are open access, multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed journals which make the objects associated with your research more discoverable, trustworthy and promote replicability and reproducibility. As open access journals, there may be an Article Publishing Charge if your paper is accepted for publication. Find out more about the Research Elements journals at https://www.elsevier.com/authors/tools-and-resources/research-elements-journals?dgcid=ec_em_research_elements_email.

Kind regards,

Elizabeth Anne Wesner, Ph.D.
Associate Scientific Editor
Heliyon

Editor comments:

The manuscript is greatly improved, and almost ready to accept for final publication checks. Unfortunately, some grammar edits were missed in the last round of revision. Please see the attached pdf, and check thoroughly to ensure that all grammar edits are incorporated this time. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out.

Dear Dr. Ngatman,

Thank you for submitting your manuscript to Heliyon.

We have now received all of the editor and reviewer comments on your recent submission to Heliyon. Your paper will become acceptable for publication after implementation of minor formatting and/or administrative changes outlined below. Furthermore, please note that Heliyon now uses a Numbered reference style. Please update the references in your manuscript accordingly, if necessary. To avoid unnecessary delays in the publication of your manuscript, please do not make any other additional changes during this revision.

To submit your revised manuscript, please log in as an author at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/heliyon/>, and navigate to the "Submissions Needing Revision" folder under the Author Main Menu. When submitting your revised manuscript, please ensure that you upload your most recent document with the "Revised manuscript file - highlighting revisions made" item type.

If you need additional time to address the concerns that came up in the review process, please let us know so we can discuss a plan for moving your paper forward.

We encourage authors of original research papers to share the research objects – including raw data, methods, protocols, software, hardware and other outputs – associated with their paper. More information on how our open access Research Elements journals can help you do this is available at https://www.elsevier.com/authors/tools-and-resources/research-elements-journals?dgcid=ec_em_research_elements_email.

Embargo

Embargos are not automatically set for papers published in Heliyon. Papers appear online a few days after acceptance. To request a media embargo and/or publication on a specific date to assist an institutional press release, please reach out to the Heliyon team (info@heliyon.com) as soon as possible and we will do our best to accommodate your request.

Heliyon is an online publication and we do not impose a limit on the length of the article or the number of figures. If you have supplementary content you would prefer not to combine with your main manuscript file please ensure all your supplementary files are self-contained and can stand alone (title, legend, etc), that all labels and names within the supplementary content are unique to avoid duplication, and that these files are referenced within the main text. Please also ensure that the file name for each file is labelled as the file is referenced in-text, as that is how they will be named on our website. If you have any supplementary videos/audio files please provide a title and legend at the end of your manuscript for these.

Editor and Reviewer comments:

Please note that all manuscripts submitted to Heliyon are checked for originality using the Crosscheck database (For more information on Crosscheck visit their website at <http://www.crossref.org/crosscheck.html>). We have studied your work carefully and have come to the conclusion that the textual overlap between your manuscript and previously published articles goes beyond the normal occurrence of standard phrases in your field. The largest overlap is with the following articles:

<Development of "Authentic Assessment" Instruments Basic Forehand and Backhand Groundstroke Techniques Based On "Actions Method" Learning Outcomes of Field Tennis Courses for Faculty of Sports Science of Yogyakarta State University Students>

You can also find the largest sources of overlap in the attached iThenticate report. Please rewrite your manuscript to eliminate textual overlap with previously published literature before resubmitting. Please be aware that you will have one opportunity to address and reduce the overlap in your manuscript to an acceptable level. If you do not do this we may be forced to reconsider our decision for your submission and issue a reject decision.

Please reference all numbered tables in text. Currently, numbered tables [1] in the manuscript have not been cited in text.

The declaration of competing interests that you upload should be in a standard and editable format. Please select the suitable option and upload it with this submission. You can download the standard declaration of competing interests form from the following link.
