I. DESKRIPSI MATA KULIAH

This course, which is a continuation of Book Report I, is a further step to shape students' reading habit. The course takers are to read three original works (either novels or plays) and three simplified works (either novels or plays- min grade 4) to be reported in written form. Based on the report, an oral test is conducted to evaluate students' reading activity.

This syllabus and the course orientation are given in the first session. As the name suggests, this subject will be conducted mostly through individual study. Lecture will only be the main mode for the first three weeks when providing students with some principal theories on reading and analyzing the basic elements of novels and plays, and techniques to make a report or summary.

II. STANDARISASI KOMPETENSI MATA KULIAH

After joining this course students are able to gain some basic knowledge of literary appreciation, for example literary genres, and the elements of novels and plays
